

CareSource will reimburse all participating doctors' offices, including optometrists' offices, performing a medically necessary tear osmolarity test, provided that the doctor's office has been certified as a laboratory under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act (CLIA) regulations, and has a CLIA license.

Related Policies & References

State Exceptions

NONE

Document Revision History

Archived