

Indiana Medicaid and Marketplace Plans

Policy Updates September 2018

- Administrative
- Medical

The following policies are effective September 15, 2018

POLICY UPDATES

POLICY NAME & NUMBER	POLICY TYPE	EFFECTIVE DATE	PLAN	SUMMARY
Negative Pressure Wound Therapy (NPWT)– IN MCD MM – 0227	MEDICAL	SEPTEMBER 15, 2018	MEDICAID	CareSource has developed a new medical policy for negative pressure wound therapy (also known as vacuum -assisted wound closure or wound vac) that allows for approval of the wound vac for the patient for 31 days. We require that additional authorization be obtained every 30 days for continuation of the wound vac based on the criteria that is outlined in the medical policy. CareSource will approve a wound vac with a stage III or IV pressure ulcer, chronic neuropathic ulcer and additional ulcer types that are outlined in the policy. CareSource will also approve for wound complications and surgical complications as well with additional criteria needing to be met that is outlined in the medical policy.
Negative Pressure Wound Therapy (NPWT)– IN MPP MM – 0228	MEDICAL	SEPTEMBER 15, 2018	MARKETPLACE	CareSource has developed a new medical policy for negative pressure wound therapy (also known as vacuum -assisted wound closure or wound vac) that allows for approval of the wound vac for the patient for 31 days. We require that additional authorization be obtained every 30 days for continuation of the wound vac based on the criteria that is outlined in the medical policy. CareSource will approve a wound vac

POLICY UPDATES

POLICY NAME & NUMBER	POLICY TYPE	EFFECTIVE DATE	PLAN	SUMMARY
Trading Partners – IN MCD AD - 0082	ADMINISTRATIVE	SEPTEMBER 15, 2018	MEDICAID	CareSource accepts electronic claim submissions to increase the efficiency of claim processing. CareSource has specific requirements regarding electronic claim submissions. This policy applies to providers wishing to directly connect with CareSource for electronic filing along with trading partners and clearinghouses not already contracted with CareSource and the electronic claim submission process.
Trading Partners – IN MPP AD – 0083	ADMINISTRATIVE	SEPTEMBER 15, 2018	MARKETPLACE	CareSource accepts electronic claim submissions to increase the efficiency of claim processing. CareSource has specific requirements regarding electronic claim submissions. This policy applies to providers wishing to directly connect with CareSource for electronic filing along with trading partners and clearinghouses not already contracted with CareSource and the electronic claim submission process.